I feel that normal broadcast radio is now 99% controlled by large corporations. Without other competition, they have monopolized music. Radio stations now sound nearly identical, play nearly identical music. DJs are gone, replaced by mindless music gnomes that do exactly what corporate tells them. Please, allow companies like XM to broadcast local content to keep the market fair and open.